Dr. Hugh Foy received the 2012 UW Distinguished Teaching Award. Each year, the University of Washington honors several members of the faculty as Distinguished Teachers. Awardees are chosen based on a variety of criteria, including extensive knowledge and mastery of the subject matter, innovation in course and curriculum design; ability to inspire, guide and mentor students through independent and creative thinking; ability to engage students in a variety of classroom settings; and service as a mentor, collaborator and consultant to other faculty and teaching assistants by helping to enrich the scholarship of teaching and learning. The Distinguished Teaching Award may be awarded to a faculty member only once in his/her lifetime.

Dr. Foy has received numerous teaching awards over the years. This is a significant honor from the University and accurately reflects the esteem in which Dr. Foy is held by faculty, medical students and residents. The Department salutes Dr. Foy on this extraordinary award.
